Group conducting data collection: Harris Interactive

You are one of about 1,600 young people and their parents who we have asked to take the “Growing Up With Media Year 5” survey. This page explains this research study. Please read it carefully.

Your parent or guardian has finished the Adult Survey. Now, it is your turn to complete the Youth Survey. It will take you about 30 minutes.

It is important that you fill out the survey by yourself. You need to be in a place that is private and where you feel safe. No one should be able to see your answers. No one should tell you what your answers should be.

All of the answers you give will be kept private. We will not share your answers with your parents or anyone else outside of the research team. Your answers will be kept in a safe place. We will never associate your responses to any personal information you provide. Your answers will only be reported together with others and will not be traced back to you.

We will mail you a gift card for $25 after you do this survey.

We will ask you and your parent or guardian to do one more survey one year from now. If you do the survey next year, you will get a $35 gift card.

Some of the questions we ask are about exposure to violence including sexual violence, physical and verbal abuse, and related content seen on TV, the Internet, video games, and movies. We also will ask about things like substance use such as drinking and smoking and experiences with sexual pictures. We need to ask these questions so we can better understand why some young people have unhealthy relationships. Your answers help us learn things that teens and young adults are doing so that we can help them live more healthy lives. Your participation is very important.

Taking this survey will not help or hurt you. Some young people said that some of the questions in the last survey made them upset. You should know that the survey asks you about things you may have seen or done that might be hard to talk about.

You do not have to answer any question you do not want to for any reason. Your answers are important to us.
